Shivpuri is the starting point of the rafting and is located at a stretch of 16 km at Rishikesh – Badrinath highway. Shivpuri sees a lot of tourist activity day-in and day-out courtesy its significance as the most popular starting point. This point serves as the ideal launch-pad for white water rafting.

OR

0900-1230 Heritage walk to the Beatles Ashram
The walk will start from Shivanand Jhula (Ram Jhula) to Beatles Ashram and back to Shivanand Jhula.

Shivanand Jhula (Ram Jhula) is an iron suspension bridge across the river Ganges, this bridge was built in the year 1986 and it is one of the iconic landmarks of Rishikesh.

Beatles Ashram also known as Chaurasi Kutia, during 1960s and 1970s as the International Academy of Meditation, it was the training centre for students of Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, who devised the Transcendental Meditation Technique. The Ashram gained International attention between February and April 1968 when the rock band the Beatles studied Meditation there along with celebrities such as Donovan, Mia Farrow and Mike Love.

Thursday, February 14
All conference sessions will take place at the conference tent, except the BO 2 at the Auditorium, Ganga Resort.

Tourism has the power to rejuvenate and to transform. Rishikesh is host to many rejuvenating tourism products - yoga, wellness, food, adventure. But in the age of overtourism and mass tourism, rejuvenation does not necessarily happen organically. It is the results of careful planning by destinations thoughtful experience design by tour operators and mindfulness by tourists. Our conference programs explore the themes of niche tourism, especially those unique to Rishikesh.

1055-1110 Networking Coffee Break hosted by Uttarakhand Tourism Development Board

1110-1135 Session 1: Using sustainability to future-proof our destination

If we are serious about ensuring that our tourism assets can be enjoyed by the next generation and that tourism be a profitable business for the next generation - our industry needs to adopt sustainable practices. In India, especially, we have a need to work collaboratively with media, government, and non-profit sector. Tourism is a tool to help us achieve our goals - but we rarely have those goals in mind when we are developing tourism. Apoorva takes a step back, looks at our goals for tourism in an Indian context and makes a call for collaboration and sustainability.

(Session format: Presentation and discussion)

Speaker:

Mr. Apoorva Prasad, Editor-in-Chief and Founder, The Outdoor Journal, Luxemburg

1135-1220 Breakout Session 1: Trends to India

India holds a special place in the imagination of both adventure and wellness travellers – but who are these travellers? Where do they come from? What do they value? What are their motivations? What experiences are they seeking out? Which ones are they willing to pay for? Our expert panel will shed light on the trends to India from the unique perspectives of an OTA and a luxury travel designer.

(Session format: discussion, Q&A)

Moderator: Dr. Mario Hardy, Chief Executive Officer, PATA, Thailand

Speakers:

- Ms. Mariellen Ward, Digital Storyteller, Content Marketer, Traveller, Breathedreamgo, India
