Udhham Singh Nagar

Tribute to a freedom fighter

Gurudwara Nanak Matta

Uttarakhand... Simply Heaven!

Nanak Matia Dam

Udham Singh Nagar was a part of district Nainital before it gained the identity of a separate district in September 1995. Covering an area of 3,055 sq. kms at an height of 250 mtrs above sea level, the district was named in memory of Late Shri Udham Singh, a great freedom fighter, who killed Michael Adwayar after the brutal Jallianwala Bagh massacre.

The district comprises of three main sub divisions Rudrapur, Kashipur and Khatima and is surrounded by the exotic Kumaon Himalayan ranges on one side and Nepal on the other (Tanakpur touches the Khatima border which is in Champawat district).

What to See

Rudrapur: This is an industrial town but has immaculate beauty. Tourist traveling from Delhi to Nainital stop over here for rest and fun. Here we have Ataria Devi Temple, Shiv Temple, Panch Mandir, Gurudwara, beautiful places & pilgrimage centres.

Hari Mandir: Established in 1954, the Hari Mandir is a highly religious entity in Rudrapur.

Panch Mandir: Pauranik Lakshmi Narayan Panch Mandir was established in 1967-68. The temple has idols of Shri Ram, Lord Shiva, Lord Ganesha, Maa Lakshmi, Maa Parvati and huge Shivaling. There's also a Shani Temple here.

Haripura and Baur Lakes: This picturesque place is close to Gadarpur around 20 kms. Both the lakes are connected with one another. Famous for the bird watching and nature walk these ponds are surrounded by dense forest.

Atariya Temple: At a distance of 2 kms from the bus stand and half a kilometer away from the Rudrapur Haldwani motor route. According to a folktale when king Rudra was passing through, his chariot got stuck into marshy land, so he decided to build a temple and well at that place. The present Atariya temple is the same.
